

CHARLES E. SCHUMER

December 9, 2002

Dear Friend,

Public service is a public trust. And no one better exemplifies that than Michael Wildes, both in his conduct as a Councilman in Englewood, NJ and as a key supporter of Democratic candidates locally and throughout the United States.

I know Michael Wildes as a fellow Democrat. But more than that, I know of and have worked with Michael because he is highly respected as an attorney, committed to social justice and the security of our great nation.

Because of my admiration and respect for him, I am traveling to New Jersey to join Michael as his guest at the grand opening of his Englewood campaign office. The event will not only mark the official opening of Michael Wildes' offices; it will also be a fundraiser for Michael, so he can continue his good work in the coming year.

Michael Wildes has been a loyal supporter of scores of Democrats both in Bergen county and across the nation. Now I urge you to join me at the opening of Michael's campaign headquarters on Thursday, December 19th from 6-8pm.

The headquarters is located at 20 North Van Brunt Street, suite 4, in Englewood. I look forward to seeing you there on Thursday, December 19th, as we gather to celebrate the official opening of Michael Wildes' new office and a new beginning as we enter a new year.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Schumer
United States Senator
